Lianne Harris will present a One-hour drama of we Canadians weren't always polite and apologetic, nor is our history lackluster compared to our American neighbours. This nation was built by bold and energetic personalities and sometimes the story gets a little dark, exploring the courageous, audacious, and clever personalities and bold events that put Canada on the map!

About Lianne Harris (B.A., B.F.A(Ed), T.E.S.L)

Lianne has been a history, culture and social studies resource specialist with the Toronto District School Board almost 20 years and has been the guest instructor and workshop leader for teachers across many boards in Southern Ontario. To date she has taught over 80 000 teachers and students (usually in authentic period clothing). In 2003, she was selected by W.O.M.A.D. as one of Toronto's Women of Influence.

She is the author of many books including two medieval novels and non-fiction books on Bangladesh, India, great women in history, historical clothing and costuming, and world travel photography. She is a contributing author of the Canadian best seller business book, The Power of Women United.

Pursuing her love of art, she has been an exhibiting artist at the Royal Ontario Museum, Roy Thomson Hall, The IDA Gallery, and The Shaw Festival.

Appearing on TV and interviewed many times on the radio, she has been the keynote presenter at many professional, academic and organization events.
